Our services.

Road freight

Our fixed departure days and delivery times guarantee the best conditions for your distribution throughout Europe. With frequent movements over a widespread route network, we deliver your goods at the right place and at the right time.

Air freight

We can transport all kinds of goods for you, in single or combined shipments to every major airport and to every continent. Our intercontinental network offers you extensive options in terms of door-to-door services. We ensure that your consignments are secure, fully managed and available when required.

Sea freight

Our sea freight specialists coordinate every phase of the transport chain, transporting your goods from port to port efficiently and via the best possible route. All this is done with support from our partner network and arrangements with the major shipping lines. We make sure that you are free to concentrate on your core business.

Logistics

As a medium-size provider of logistical services, we assist our customers who have outsourced their storage and distribution. In addition to holding regular meetings to streamline operational cooperation, we also act as your partner in optimising the practical realisation of your logistical concept.

High-quality warehouse logistics and an excellent infrastructure, throughout the Netherlands and worldwide.

As a business partner to multiple major airlines we can always offer you the cargo capacity you need.

Customs

Thanks to their many years of experience, our customs processing staff are the best in their professional field. Working at our customs terminals, at major border crossings and at ports, they ensure that your goods get moving again with the minimum delay.

Dangerous Goods

Providing storage and transport of dangerous goods and products harmful to the environment is a specialised business. We have PGS 15-certified warehouses and can even monitor your temperature-controlled goods, maintaining them at 5° to 15° Celsius. Our solutions for the storage and transport of chemicals meet all government standards and legal requirements.

Intermodal transport

Intermodal traffic is rapidly gaining popularity, especially since the privatization of the railways. In addition to road transport, Gondrand Traffic B.V. offers you rail export services throughout Italy, including Sicily. With transport by rail, your benefits include a higher load capacity, an eco-friendly solution, daily departures and years of experience.
